

August 2010

Update from Al Larson:

We are in high gear getting ready for 2011 Dangerous Man Days – 6 in Colorado and 2 in Minnesota.

Why are we focusing on encouraging and equipping men to live dangerously for God, their wives and families, and other men? What motivates me and other men who are teaming together in Colorado and Minnesota?

Check out this 5-minute video. It will inspire you! It expresses my heart and vision for Dangerous Man and embodies our 2011 theme: "Dangerous Men: For Such a Time as This."

I would welcome your feedback after watching the video. Please drop me a note at alnavs@skybeam.com.

We're also working on this website and graphic support materials for the 2011 Dangerous Man Days. There are dozens of other details to sort out, so I'm asking you to pray for us as we get the 2011 season organized.

Fuel for Prayer:

1. Pray our graphics artist working on our 2011 Dangerous Man Day brochure and graphics arts package.

2. Pray for God to use our Dangerous Man Leadership Teams and Dangerous Man Days to be a catalyst for God to raise up men who are dangerous for God and for good in their families and workplaces.

Thanks for praying and even watching the video!

Al

P.S. Here's the words to a very meaningful song passed on to me from a friend in Pennsylvania:

What e'er my God ordains is right: Holy His will abideth; I will be still what e'er he doth, and follow where He guideth; He is my God; though dark my road, He holds me that I shall not fall; Wherefore to Him I leave it all.

What e'er my God ordains is right: He never will deceive me; He leads me by the proper path; I know He will not leave me; I take content, what He hath sent; His hand can turn my griefs away, And patiently I wait His day.

What e'er my God ordains is right; though now this cup, in drinking, May bitter seem to my faint heart, I take it, all unshrinking; My God is true; each morn anew sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart, And pain and sorrow shall depart.

What e'er my God ordains is right; here shall my stand be taken; Though sorrow, need, or death be mine, yet am I not forsaken; My Father's care is round me there; He holds me that I shall not fall; And so to Him I leave it all.
